Hi Rhona,

It was so nice to hear your voice again after all this time. I know things are crazy busy and exciting and i appreciate the time you spent with me. To follow up with what I was saying yesterday, I do have a winner of a project that I want to approach Mr. Trump with but I do understand the timing isn't right now.

I also would like to show my support for Donald and his campaign. I am offering my services to do his grooming and getting him perfectly camera ready for photos and Hi-Definition TV. He knows better than anybody how important image is. He still looks great after all the time I've known him, since 1992, but I can make him look even better. He has really nice skin and I remember it well, but I will make him look even younger and fresher and above all, NATURAL. Nobody will know he will be wearing anything and he will not look like a caked up mess that I see other politicians looking like. I will be very discreet and quiet about it. He already has a huge edge but I want to help in the way that I can, I have always been very fond of Donald and I CARE about him as he helped me see the light and get out of the very damaging and abusive relationship I was in. I am so different and much better than I was before. He gave me the courage to leave in so many ways and I always credit him for that. It bothers me when I hear negative remarks on his hair. I think his hair looks good, actually.

I have a huge roster of male clients that I have done grooming on: Richard Branson, Bob Costas, Eliot Spitzer, Chris Wragge from CBS2 news, Scott Shannon from CBS radio, the whole CBS 2 news team actually, and many others in my 15 year career here in NYC. Most recently I got John Oates of Hall & Oates camera ready to a tv interview using my products formulated for men. John loves the product and wears it all the time. It's not on the market yet because I want to launch it the right way. I'm attaching a photo from the shoot backstage of Jones Beach Theater a few weeks ago.

I hope he takes me up on my offer. I am in Manhattan very frequently and live 10 miles away in Oakland Gardens, Queens, next to Fresh Meadows and Bayside. so I am not far at all.

Rhona, you have always been friendly and kind to me and I appreciate it very much. If there is anything I can ever do for you, please let me know.

Here's my contact info. If you Google my name, tons of pictures and reviews will come up, too. I am also a beauty correspondent on the show, Live It Up.
